

UCAS at IECA Madrid

Last month UCAS went to Madrid for an exciting and informative IECA event, to meet with independent educational advisers from across the world. IECA is an organisation that brings together independent advisers (not linked to a specific school or agency) who are involved with guiding students into Higher Education, and it was great to hear about how UCAS supports these advisers, and how we can help them more in the future. There were around 80 attendees from a wide range of countries including Belgium, Canada, China, Costa Rica, Kenya, Spain, Turkey and the USA, so a real opportunity to get a global perspective on this part of the adviser community!

Supporting students receiving offers

Students who have made an application to university before 26 January may start receiving offers. Here are the types of offers they may receive.

If your students did not receive offers from all five choices, they can use Extra to add another choice.

Preparing for the 2025 cycle

The Adviser Portal has a new feature enabling you to download your student applications in bulk in a PDF format to save you time when preparing for the next cycle, and before 2022 and 2023 cycle data is removed. Product Manager Callie Hawkins has developed a step-by-step guide to take you through the process for the first time.
